Course Description/Objectives	English III CP            English III CP focuses on American authors and American Literary movements as a framework for study. Students will develop and refine their reading, writing, communication and researching skills while practicing the necessary critical thinking skills required for postsecondary education.
Required Instructional Materials	For online instruction, each student will need a computer/ipad or tablet, and internet access. Students will also need to be able to print some of the materials needed and to submit completed work via itslearning or email. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• composition notebook/journal</li> <li>• 3 ring binder with (5) dividers and pockets</li> <li>• highlighters – multi-colored</li> <li>• flash drive</li> <li>• notebook paper</li> </ul> Other materials may arise pending activities in class.
Instructional Methods	Lectures, multimedia elements, class discussions, projects, individual assignments, cooperative learning, etc.
Grading Procedures	The academic year is divided into four quarters or nine-week periods. The weight for each nine-week period will be 37.5 percent and the semester exam will weigh 25 percent. There will be a minimum of 3 grades per student during each three weeks progress report grading period, as per district guidelines. This course will be comprised of 3 grading categories: Major Assessments 50%, Minor Assessments 30%, and Daily Work 20%. What constitutes major, minor, and daily work is determined per course. [Examples: major assessments= test, project; minor assessments=quiz, engineering notebook; and daily work= notes, maps, homework]

	the discretion of the teacher. Science Academy is not responsible for lost, damaged, or stolen devices.
Assessments	Frequently during the year, formative assessments will be given. These will be in the form of homework, written or oral quiz, readings and discussion, student writing, or tests. Feedback will be given on all formative assessments. The formative assessments are critical to learning because they provide feedback as to what essential learning we will focus on next. They will help influence and shape the process of learning while we still have time to improve before test or grades are given.
Retesting Procedures	Retests will be available to students upon receiving a failing grade. There may be prerequisites set by the teacher. The time and date for all retests is determined by the teacher. Any retesting assignment must be completed within one week of an excused absence.
Homework &amp; Late Assignments	All assignments are due at the designated time. Homework is due at the beginning of the class hour. Late assignments due to absences: If a student is absent the day an assignment is due, the student shall receive a due date for the next class meeting. Assignments submitted electronically are due before the beginning of class time on the scheduled due date. Students who are absent on the day an assignment is given will need to turn in the assignment within the same time frame originally set by the teacher. Work turned in during this time shall receive full credit. Late assignments not due to absences: Late assignments should be turned in within a one-week period, but a deduction of 10 points will be applied per day (not class period).
Netiquette	Netiquette describes the code of conduct for a face to face or online environment. It ensures respect for others and prevents misunderstandings or unintentional offenses to others. The netiquette described here is amended to ensure your success in this course. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>○ When you are typing or submitting a response, do not use all capital letters (caps).
